

Why is being an active reader important?

- Being an active reader has many advantages.
- It helps you with comprehension of the text.
- Being able to understand the text allows you to summarize it accurately.
- However, the most important and relevant advantage for actively reading in a writing course or for a writing assignment, is that it will help you respond to the text.

