Franklin & Marshall College

- Spanish 201: Puertas y Puentes

This course prepares students to express themselves meaningfully in increasingly complex situations, ranging from giving detailed opinions to hypothesizing about the future. The course expands on the grammatical concepts and vocabulary studied in SPA 101 and 102 and fosters critical thinking in a variety of cultural contexts. Spanish is the primary language of instruction and class time is used for interactive practice in meaningful contexts.

- Front Matter
- 1: Capítulo 1- El arte de comer
- 2: Capítulo 2- El medio ambiente
- 3: Capítulo 3- La salud física y mental
- 4: Capítulo 4- Conectando aquí y acá
- 5: Capítulo 5- La hispanidad de los EEUU
- 6: Apéndice
- Back Matter
Puertas y Puentes: Introductory Spanish II is designed for second-semester Spanish learners. Each of its four chapters provide cultural information about the Hispanic World including Spain, El Cono Sur, Colombia, and the Spanish-speaking Caribbean. Students can read text, watch videos, and apply their growing language skills through the many activities in each chapter. Cover Photo by Jose Luis Cernadas Iglesias.