George Berkeley - "The Principles of Human Knowledge" (Bennett)

GEORGE BERKELEY (1685-1753): The Principles of Human Knowledge

[Brackets] enclose editorial explanations. Small ·dots· enclose material that has been added, but can be read as though it were part of the original text. Occasional •bullets, and also indenting of passages that are not quotations, are meant as aids to grasping the structure of a sentence or a thought. Every four-point ellipsis .... indicates the omission of a brief passage that seems to present more difficulty than it is worth.

• Front Matter
1: Essay Towards a New Theory of Vision, 1709/1733

2: The Principles of Human Knowledge, 1710

3: Three Dialogues between Hylas and Philonous, 1713

4: Alciphron, 1732

Back Matter